

Centre at Musgrave Park Hospital should bear the name of Jimmy Withers, who was one of the founders of the Northern Ireland Council for Orthopaedic Development (NICOD) and the first 'pure' orthopaedic surgeon in the Province.

REFERENCES

- 1 Minute Books of the Northern Ireland Council for Orthopaedic Development, 1940 to 1948.
- 2 Wilson RI. Sticks and stones. Ulster Med J 1977; 46: 14-21.
- 3 Bardon J. Belfast—an illustrated history. Belfast: Blackstaff, 1982.

ERRATA Volume 53, No. 1, 1984

Career preference enquiry among Queen's University medical undergraduates and graduates: Stage III
by Elizabeth A. Egerton.

Page 93: line 30: for "DLD" read "DLO"

Page 94: line 8: read "One hundred and seven of the 1979 graduates"

line 21: read "64.7 percent of the 1977 group were"

Page 95: line 24: read "30 percent of the 1979 final year"